
Program Requirements

As well as the program prerequisites, it is expected that during the four years of the program that participants will:

- continue in on-going spiritual direction during outside the program
- be engaged in directing others as they progress through the program.
- be in regular supervision if they are directing others

It is also strongly recommended that:

- each participant make a retreat each year.